HINKLE FOR DELEGATE

In attending Territorial and county Democratic conventions for the past twenty-three years.

He has, furthermore, never held an elective office at the hands of the Democrats of southern New Mexico that was a lucrative one. When he was county commissioner eighteen years ago, when this (Chaves) county was a part of Lincoln county, there was a salary of only $400 per annum attached to the honor and the office. Likewise the same amount of money per annum was received by him when he was treasurer of Lincoln county in 1894. The compensation was not greater then, as the office of collector at that time was not connected with the treasurer's office, and the treasurer was simply the custodian of the money, and even with this nominal salary of $400 per annum the treasurer elected was forced to give a heavy bond.

He has had the honor of representing this district in the New Mexico legislature for three terms, once in the senate and twice in the house. However, these offices, as is well known, are per diem ones, and those elected are lucky to get off with bare expense.

Mr. Hinkle has been a resident of what is now Chaves county for twenty-three years, and he has never scratched a Democratic ballot and has never bolted his party. He has always been active in the affairs of the Democratic party in the city of Roswell, and in Chaves and Lincoln counties and in the Territory.

Captain Joseph C. Lea, the man "who blazed the way," and made the present city of Roswell possible and was elected the first city mayor of Roswell. He died before the expiration of his term, and Mr. Hinkle was elected Roswell's second mayor and filled out the full term. His great executive ability and his desire for civic righteousness during his term as mayor resulted in the total abolition of gambling in the city of Roswell by ordinance, two years before it was abolished in New Mexico by Territorial enactment. Roswell was the first city in New Mexico to abolish this open flagrant evil and Artesia led the way as the first town.

He is competent, well educated, of good appearance, and stands for national, as well as for civic righteousness and the Democrats of Southern

New Mexico will be unanimous for him as their choice for nominee for Delegate to Congress on the Democratic ticket from New Mexico.

It is thought that the claims of Hinkle and his friends will be given due consideration at the next convention that meets here on June 10th, by the Democrats of the northern and western parts of the Territory. He has certainly accomplished a vast amount of good for the Democratic party in the entire Territory and is entitled to recognition at this time by the Democrats of New Mexico.

The boom that some would try and resurrect Mr. Larrazolo as nominee for Delegate is to many Democrats here, amusing. He has carried the party twice to defeat and on the last nomination the Southern portion and the Pecos Valley of New Mexico gave him a majority over Andrews and voted and worked for him because he was efficient, competent and the nominee of the party. It was his own section and the Northern part of the Territory that brought about his defeat.

When he was the nominee the first time in 1900, Hinkle was nominee for the Territorial Senate from this section of New Mexico and was elected and had 1,000 votes ahead of Larrazolo and the entire ticket.

CURRENCY THE PARAMOUNT TOPIC AT WASHINGTON

Washington, May 26.—The currency was the paramount topic at the capital today. At the house end the Republican conferees on the currency bill were early in close conference, while a similar meeting was in progress in Senator Aldrich's room. It was understood that the two committees would hold a joint conference before taking the Democratic members of the committee into their confidence. For the present they are proceeding on a basis of compromise between the senate and house bills, but with a general understanding that even if reported it would be so violently antagonized that it probably would be impossible to mould it into a law.

FIRST CLASS BATTLE SHIP MICHIGAN LAUNCHED

Camden, N. J., May 26.—The first class battle ship Michigan was launched today from the yard of the New York Shipbuilding Co. on the Delaware river. The new vessel is known as the "All Big Gun" battle ship, as it will carry eight-inch breech-loading rifles besides 12-inch guns. The main battery will include two submerged torpedo tubes, and a secondary battery of 22 three-inch rapid-fire guns, and several smaller automatic and machine guns.

THE COURT WORK.

ING ON CIVIL DOCKET The work of the district court these days is a steady grind on the civil docket, settling from a legal standpoint the differences between men. Monday morning the suit of C. M. Dodson against the New Mexico Eastern railroad for $10,000, alleged to be due for damages received in getting a foot cut off by the cars, was ended and the verdict passed in the jury's hands. But at three o'clock this afternoon the jury had not yet been able to agree.

Late Monday was taken up the suit of W. G. Skillman against J. B. Roberts, a claim for a commission in a real estate deal. This trial proceeded until this morning when the court took the matter out of the jury's hands and instructed a finding for defendant. After the Skillman-Roberts trial was taken up the suit of Hugh Moore against Wm. O. Dunlap, over a boundary line near the town of Dunlap, 85 miles north of Roswell. This case is on trial this afternoon.

PRESBYTERIANS CONSIDER MISSIONARY WORK.

Kansas City, May 26.—Every field of home missionary work was considered today by the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church. The board explained that this was due to assumption of the work of the Cumberland branch of the church. The financial panic is believed to have been responsible for the fact that the increased gifts did not largely exceed the increased appropriations. The general assembly, through its committee on colleges expressed its gratitude to John D. Rockefeller and Andrew Carnegie for their generous gifts to Presbyterian colleges.
